Baker led the American League in home runs with nine in 1911, with ten in 1912, with twelve in 1912, and in 1914 Frank was tied with Sam Crawbord for the home run crown with eight. These figures do not include werld's series homers in 1914 and 1912.

The Yankees got a fine box on the ears on the Polo Grounds yesterday and now they know just how it feels to be put through the double header degree. Fohl's wily Cleveland Indians bumped the Yankees in both sections of their second twin bill in forty-eight hours, and incidentally bumped the Ruppert and Huston entry off the top perch of Czar Ban's league. The sixth city tribe melted down the Yank lead to a half was stopped by rain in the seventh inning, by a score of 1 to 0.

poor Mickey Doolan's hit got into the record of the strike a blow, and then receive nothing for it but honorable mention. One bingle means more to Doolan than a million dollars means to some bloated plutocrat.

To-day's game was exactly the opposite of yesterday's crazyquilt contest. Yesterday the two teams knocked out thirty hits in ten innings. To-day the Giants and Reds landed only three hits between them in six innings. Merkle made the Giants' only official bingle, while Herzog hit a double and Griffith hit a single for Cincinnati.

all the Giants' Harlem jinxes were snapping at their heels. The reformed Indians have played seven games under the "cool" shadows of Coogan's Bluff this season, and in six of the games they went away happy.

The open double header season still is bringing the "bugs" out in swarms, and another banner midweek crowd of about 18,000 watched the home boys glide into second place. To-day ball players and their chroniclers get a holiday, as only one game is on the baseball bill only one game is on the baseball bill on full time to-morrow, when a double header is on the slate with Detroit.

The game developed into a pretty pitcher's battle between the two start burlers of the late Buffeds, Fred Anderson, now McGraw's leading pitcher, and Heinie Schulz, the former Yankee lefthander. It was tough that the two brother Buffeds could not fight it out to a finish. As Anderson had two runs and the bases were full of Glants when the game was stopped in the seventh, there is no question that "Andy" won on his merita.

The game was called for about five minutes, while Burns was at bat in the fourth limins, while Burns was at bat in the fourth limins, while Burns was at bat in the fourth limins, while a short wait Harrison started the players going again, but it atarted to come down too heavy in the seventh to continue, and Harrison started the players going asian but it atarted to come down too heavy in the seventh to continue, and Harrison telepath in the business will be seventh to continue, and Harrison the called it "quitte" for the day.

There was very little action, and each teach had only one man left on base in the six innings which constituted the legal game. The Glants got three men to base and the Reds only two. Larry Doyle walked to start the second inning, but was out stealing, while in the Red, had for the second chapter, with two out, but was out stealing, while in the Red, and the was a base with more double, so was a staged for half a dozen stray hits, and the second chapter, with two out, but was out stealing, while in the Red, and the Reds only two. In the seventh inning, the round in which the game was terminated, Doolan singled to right with two out and took second on a passed ball. Merkle was purposely passed, and when Neale muffed McKechnie's line drive in the rain Doolan scored a run which proved nothing but a blank cartridge. if the Tankees could save about half of those runs they get so lavishly for Culiop and present them to Caidwell, Ray, instead of Nick, would be the hero of the Yank staff. Ray is pitching grand ball, but he can't win games when his team scores only two runs in twenty-nine inings behind him. He beat Johnson I to in eleven innings, then lost 2 to 1 to Chicago and I to 0 to Cleveland.

Pritsy Maisel was put off the grounds before he had a chance to get into the gams. Frits put a uniform on last Monday, and yeaterday intended to sit it out on the bench. However, Silk O'Loughin didn't like the sound of Maisel's voice in the first inning of the second game and ordered Maisel out. Silk made the discovery in the second inning that Fritz still was using up room on the bench and ordered the game stopped until the little Maryland Teuton moved himself away, Maisel shagged files in the outfield in the early afternoon, but made no attempt to throw.

Cincinnati, Ohio, July 12.—Charles
W. Muiphy, former president of the Chicago National baseball club, to-day became the sole owner of the former baseball park of the Cubs on the West Side in Chicago, when he concluded negotiations with Charles P. Taft for the purchase of a one-half interest in the real estate. The ball park was originally acquired from the John R. Walsh estate, Murphy buying a half interest and Mrs. Taft owning the other half. Since the Cubs were acquired by Charles Weeghman and his associates they have Weeghman and his associates they have and William hard in the first game, while Plank kept Philadelphia's hits scattered in the second contest.

FIRST GAME

Double Header Sunday.

The Royal Giants, who broke even with Eddie Grant's crack Jersey City team last Sunday, will clash with the Bushwicks at Wallace's Ridgewood grounds, Halsey street and Wyckoff avenue, Brooklyn, this Sunday afternoon. The Royals, after being beaten by the Skeeters 3 to 1 last Sunday, came back with a brand of baseball that kept a big crowd on edge and trounced the Jerseyltes, 10 to 1.

With Lefty Harvey and Smith in top form, the Royals feel confident they can take the measure of the Bushwicks. The Royals played the Bushwicks early this season and gave an excellent exhibition of the national pastime. The teams are well matched and should put up two nip and tuck tilts this Sunday. The first game will start at 1.30.
